Frequently Asked Questions

If I provide my own wedding cake, do I have to pay the servers an additional fee for cutting and serving the cake?

Outside wedding cakes are fine provided they are provided by a licensed baker with waiver on file. Cake cutting is part of the room rental/wedding package so there are no additional costs involved.

Can you arrange for a tasting at which my fiancée and I can try some options for each course of the meal?

A free taste testing is part of our room rental/wedding package after contract signing. We’ll serve up to four people at the taste testing. The tasting must occur at least one month prior to the big day and includes one entrée and two sides. For an additional entrée there is a fee.

How long is the space available? What time can we come decorate?

When you book a reception with us or The InnTowner, the room is available to you from 11am till Midnight. At Midnight, everything must be shut down.

Are any types of decorations that are forbidden?

Check with us ahead of time (before purchasing, if possible) to make sure it won’t be, but we’re pretty flexible. Our only rules are No Rice, No Glitter, and No Confetti.

Do you have any other events or weddings the same day or weekend?

You will be our ONLY wedding reception. Other smaller events that require no attention from banquet staff might be going on in other rooms, but would not interfere with your event. The other banquet spaces are very separated from yours.

Are there any other taxes or fees I might not be thinking of?

A 20% service charge and tax are added to all food or beverage items. Bartender Service is billed at $100 per 4 hours. This fee can be waived if bar sales (not including kegs) reach $500. Time after the four hours can be charged on an hourly basis.

What is the payment process?

A $500 non-refundable deposit is due at the time of booking. Six (6) months prior a second $500 non-refundable deposit is due. Final payment is due one (1) week prior to the reception date.
